

Show only what you want to share.

When you choose to share an application during a meeting, attendees only see that application, and nothing else on your screen or desktop.

- Securely share an application, instead of your whole screen.
- Keep your private messages, private.

Learn how here