

The old way vs the new way

Face to face lesson	Virtual classroom friendly
Does anyone have any questions?	Come off mute if you have questions or post in chat.
Here's a physical handout.	Post documents to Webex .
Does everyone understand this concept?	Have people anonymously circle yes or no on the whiteboard.
Raise your hand to share an example...	Please type examples in the chat.
Tell, tell, tell.	Let them watch you write out instructions live in class, for maximum attention.
Discuss in small groups, then share with the class.	Discuss in small Spaces and come back to share with the class.
Get into Groups	Add them to Breakout Sessions
Talk to your Study Group	Discuss in your messaging space with your team.

Interactive games to check comprehension

- Races to solve problems on the whiteboard.
- First one to type the right answer in chat wins a point.
- Student-to-student Q&A for points work great.
- Break the class into for competitions.

Tips for planning games

Be intentional. Are you checking comprehension or just facilitating conversation?

- Make it easy for everyone to participate.
- Make sure it's in your participation credit.
- Recognize and reward participation.

PRO TIP
 Get comfortable with easy participation wins! Add games as you go to keep the class fresh, for both students and yourself.

Get creative with your own ideas!
